Finacity Facilitates USD 50 Million Receivables Financing Facility for Advancion Corporation

Stamford (CT), USA – October 1, 2026 – Finacity Corporation, a White Oak Global Advisors Company, (“Finacity”) announced that it has successfully facilitated a USD 50 million receivables financing facility funded by a global investment firm and its credit funds and accounts for Advancion Corporation (“Advancion”), a portfolio company of Ardian and Golden Gate Capital. The facility is collateralized by certain accounts receivables originated by Advancion and its subsidiaries, including trade receivables originated in the United States, Germany, and Singapore. Finacity Corporation acted as the administrator for the program, providing analytic and execution support, and is responsible for ongoing program administration and reporting.

Walter Keller, Advancion’s Chief Financial Officer, stated: “We appreciated the strong partnership and expertise throughout the development of our $50 million receivables securitization program. The new facility enhances our financial flexibility and supports the ongoing growth of our business. The Finacity team was instrumental in assisting our team with structuring the reporting requirements under this new program. We look forward to the continued collaboration with Finacity.”
